Girl Scouts are beautiful—Inside & Out Registration

Troop #301 is happy to invite you and your girls for a day of fun and confidence building! Each girl in attendance will learn a lot about themselves and one another. Girls will learn how to keep their insides beautiful and working properly, and also how to take care of their outsides and appearances. They will have the opportunity to ask questions, get answers, and take home information that they can use everyday.

This event is open to girls age brownie level & above. The event will last all day and should provide an opportunity for girls at every level to learn a lot while fulfilling multiple badge requirements. Each age level will have the opportunity to attend clinics filled with information specific to their badge earning levels.
